

Elementary Science Workshops

Elementary science covers just about every area you can imagine! The scientific method is the foundation for understanding the world around us and how it works. In science workshops, discovery is key! Workshops will be theme based, content and age specific, and hands-on!

Contact me to see about scheduling your own group session to meet your needs, or watch the events page for specific workshop availability.